

ALBERT BENJAMIN TINKHAM

At his home in Fisher, Minnesta., Saturday, February 17th, 1900, Albert Benjamin Tinkham, in his 60th year.

Mr. Tinkham was born in Collinsville, Conn. June 1st. 1840, and came with his parents to this town in early life. He was a member of Co. A, 44th N.Y. Vols. (Ellsworth Avengers), and received a wound in his arm which was the source of much suffering as long as he lived. He went west soon after the war and became a wheat farmer on a large scale. His wife, daughter of the late Orrin Brainard of Portland, died about 15 years ago. He is survived by one son, Orrin J., with whom he lived. A brother Howard, well remembered here, lives in Putnam Co., Ohio and two sisters, who have not gone so far from the hold home are lydia A., Mrs. A.J.Walker of Portland, and Luella, Mrs. Thomas Moran of Webster street in this town.
