Long time local resident Agnes Paulk Moran passed away at Horizon Health Care Center, Daytona Beach, on the ninth of October, 2009. She was 86 years old. Merry Agnes Paulk was born in Oscilla, GA in 1922 to Anne and Ira Paulk. She moved with her parents when she was an infant to Daytona Beach. Her father became a well-known barber on Main Street. Agnes attended local schools and graduated Seabreeze High School in 1941. She attended Stetson University majoring in music. She was well known locally for her lovely operatic soprano voice. Considered to be a prodigy, she was a guest soprano soloist at the Florida Pavilion for the 1939 World's Fair. In 1943 Agnes met and married the late Frank P. Moran, a naval aviator training in Daytona Beach. This union produced two children by whom she is survived: Frank P. Moran II, Adamstown, Maryland and Jennifer Moran Cruz, Lewisberry, Pennsylvania; four grandchildren: Matthew Moran, Patrick Moran, Joshua Cruz and Molly Cruz; and three great-grandchildren. Being a "military mom", Agnes traveled extensively during her life from Guam to Germany ultimately settling down after retirement in Daytona Beach where her husband was a professor at Embry Riddle Aeronautical Institute. The family suggests memorial contributions be made to Hospice.
